LYLOY WILL NOT SERVE

DEMOCRATS STAND BY ORIGINAL CAUCUS ACTION.

Dominant Party Votes Down Proposition to Substitute Rainey After Lloyd's Declination.

Washington, Jan. 20.—Representative Lloyd of Missouri, announced to the house today he would not serve on the Hallinger-Pinchot committee.
The statement was greeted with applause. Representative Clayton of Alabama, Democrat, offered an amendment to the Republican rule naming the members to the Hallinger committee to substitute Mr.
Rainey for Mr. Lloyd. The resolution was lost by a vote of 192 yeas to 147 nays, eleven present and not voting.

The Carrier resolution naming the Republican caucus appointees was adopted by a vote of 185 yeas, 142 nays, 18 voting "present."

Stand of Democrats.

Washington, Jan. 20.—Democratic leaders of the house decided this morning to stand by their original caucus nominees for the Hallinger-Pinchot investigation committee.
This points to the refusal of Lloyd of Missouri to serve in lieu of Rainey of Illinois.

Action of Caucus.

Washington, Jan. 20.—The caucus of Republican members of the house last night named the house side of the Hallinger-Pinchot investigation committee and incidentally Rainey of Illinois, one of the two Democrats selected by the Democratic caucus last Saturday night as the house representation on the committee was displaced. The men selected include three regular Republicans, McCall of Massachusetts, Olmstead of Pennsylvania and Denby of Michigan; one insurgent Republican, Madison of Kansas; and two Democrats, James of Kentucky and Lloyd of Missouri.

SUB-COMMITTEE MEETING.

Col. R. F. Spearman Calls Democratic Sub-Committee to Meet at Austin.

Col. R. F. Spearman leaves for Austin this afternoon to attend a meeting Saturday of the sub-committee of the Democratic Publication Submission Committee, which subcommittee was appointed to recommend some plan to the whole committee by which the Democrats in Texas who favor state-wide prohibition could concentrate upon a candidate for governor. The committee, of which Col. Spearman is chairman, has met several times but has never agreed upon a plan to recommend, and Col. Spearman would not express himself as to the probability of reaching an agreement at this time. Speaking of the submission movement in the Democratic party, Col. Spearman said:

There was a mass meeting of Democrats held at Fort Worth on the 29th day of February, 1908, which created an executive committee of thirty-one members and chose a campaign manager, Sterling P. Strong, whose duty it was to have in charge the campaign for submission by the Thirty-First Legislature of a Constitutional amendment to the people of the State of Texas which, if adopted, would prohibit the liquor traffic in this State. How well the work of the committee and campaign manager was done the result of the Democratic primary, July, 1908, discloses.
Then at San Antonio, in Aug. 1909, at our State Democratic convention, we wrote a plank into the Democratic State platform demanding that the Thirty-First Legislature carry out the will of the majority of the Democratic voters who expressed themselves on the question in the State primary and submit such a Constitutional amendment to our people as the Democratic voters had demanded.

The campaign for submission and the writing of the platform demand have become a part of the Democratic history of our glorious, old Democratic commonwealth. So likewise had gone into history the action of the Thirty-First Legislature in trampling upon the platform demand, and the will of a majority of the individual voters in the Democratic State election of July, 1908, by defeating the joint resolution of said Constitutional amendment to our people for their adoption—or rejection, when Sterling P. Strong called the executive committee, who had had in charge the campaign for submission together at Dallas to deliberate upon the situation which had been brought about by the action of the members of the House and Senate, who had defeated submission. The result of the meeting at Dallas was the creation of the committee whose duty it should be to recommend some plan to the whole committee by which the Democrats in Texas, who favored State-wide prohibition, could concentrate upon a candidate for Governor, favorable to their views, and possibly candidates for other State offices.

A SENSATIONAL TRIAL.

Defendant Faints While Testifying in His Own Behalf.

Cooper, T. A., Jan. 20.—There was quite a sensational trial in the district court at this place yesterday, the defendant being Charley Williams, a well-known young man living four miles west of Cooper in the Horton community. The charge against him was seduction. The defendant married another young woman about two months ago, which barred him from avoiding prosecution by marrying the injured party, as the defendant usually does in such cases.
The trial resulted in his conviction and the jury assessed the penalty at four years in the penitentiary. One of the sensational features during the trial was that the defendant fainted while he was on the witness stand giving testimony in his own behalf.
At the time he fainted he was being subjected to a severe cross-examination by the prosecuting attorney. He broke down completely and had to be led out of the court room. It required about twenty minutes for him to recover during which time the trial had to be suspended. After he recovered he was put back on the witness stand and the cross-examination was resumed.

A VERY NARROW ESCAPE

OLD WALL BLOWN OVER ON C. B.
JONES OFFICE.

Half a Ton of Bricks Fell on Office Chair He Had Just Vacated.

C. B. Jones, secretary of the Greenville Building and Loan Association, had a narrow and providential escape from sudden death yesterday.

Mr. Jones was sitting in his chair which is directly under a skylight in the roof, and about 2 o'clock got up and left the office waiting up to the front of the Greenville National Exchange bank. He had hardly been out of the office a minute or two, when the old wall of the Samuel building left standing from the fire of last September, fell over on the roof of the office and about half a ton of brick fell directly on the chair Mr. Jones had just vacated mashing it to the floor. Had Mr. Jones been in the chair he would with little doubt have been killed by the heavy fall of bricks.

At the same time the wall fell the zwing in front of the office also fell and is now hanging low on the sidewalk. The bricks not only broke down the chair, but broke and bent the front of the oak desk showing how strong the blow was.

A high wind from the north had prevailed most of the day and the wall tottered so much that Archie Holmes saw it swaying and ran across to warn Mr. Jones, and got to the sidewalk just as the crash came but was not hurt. Mr. Jones was quite surprised to look back from where he was standing and seeing people running to his office.
There is a window in the north end of the second story of the bank building which overlooks the office of Mr. Jones, and so strong was the force of the wind that a number of bricks were blown through the window and on the floor and stairway of the bank building.

For County Superintendent.

Prof. Charles Wrenn is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Superintendent of Education for Hunt county. Prof. Wrenn came to Hunt county 27 years ago locating near Merit. In addition to a common school education he graduated at Savory College. After completing his education he taught school for six years at Merit, and was Superintendent of the Wolfe City school for five years. He was elected County Superintendent in 1892 and served two terms. Later he taught school two years at Quilman. During the past few years he has been engaged in the mercantile business at Quilman and in farming. Four years ago he made the race for County Superintendent and was second in a contest in which there were twelve candidates. The above brief outline of Prof. Wrenn's life-work reveals the fact that he has long been closely identified with the educational interests of the county.
He was popular and successful as an educator and as County Superintendent he transacted the duties of that position in a manner highly satisfactory to the people, and especially to the teachers and others who came in contact with him. Prof. Wrenn is a man of fine character and splendid ability, and if again elected County Superintendent he will give the educational work of the county the same careful and efficient attention that characterized his former administration.

LILLEY HAS SHOWN UP

SHORT IN ACCOUNTS WITH TEM-PERANCE SOCIETY.

Penniless, He Asks for a Place to Stay—Once Leader in Church Work at Pittsburg.

Pittsburg, Jan. 20.—Wm. C. Lilley, former treasurer of the permanent temperance committee of the general assembly of the Presbyterian church and also of the Pittsburg Presbytery, who has been missing since September 28, appeared in Pittsburg last night, much to the surprise of his friends.

He was found to be short $25.00 in his accounts shortly after his appearance, but no action toward prosecuting had been taken by the church.

Mr. Lilley went to the jail last night, having read the reports of the case in Western papers, but was refused admittance as no information had been made against him. He had no place to go and was penniless.
He made a confession of his shortage and was advised to telephone Willis A. Booth, chairman of the legal board of trustees of the presbytery.
Mr. Booth took him to his home for the night. A special meeting of the presbytery will be called immediately to take action.

ORPHANS HOME WORKERS.

Dr. Buckner Calls Convention of Those Interested in This Work.

The undersigned having been repeatedly and urgently requested, "as the pioneer Orphans Home man of Texas," to call a convention of the various Orphans Homes in Texas, as organized institutions, each having a name and a locality; I hereby make the call. The convention will be opened at ten o'clock a. m., Feb. 10, in the parlor of Buckner Childrens Hospital, corner Junius Street and Haskell Ave., Dallas. Let us spend two days, if necessary, but with vigilance work one day may be sufficient.
The principal matters for consideration will be the betterment and largening and more efficient work of these institutions. Brief statements will be in order concerning the plans, work and condition of each "Home," and anything else for the good of the institutions. There will be presented some valuable facts and opinions from officials of many orphanages in America, East, West, North and South. It is understood that the convention is to consist of officials of Orphans Homes, "apart with a capital H," and such representatives as they may authorize.

R. C. BUCKNER.

THE RELIGIOUS CENSUS.

Was Taken Yesterday But Not Entirely Completed.

The religious census of the city as long looked forward to was begun yesterday and although not entirely completed was in a great measure carried out.

Up to last night nearly 1100 cards were turned in filled as required.
There was no report from those who cavassed the business portion of the city, but it is expected that all will be reported today.

The negroes are taking their own census also.

The canvassers report that they were kindly received and their questions were cheerfully answered, and much good is expected to result.

The cards will be distributed to the various pastors of the churches as the preferences are designated.

ALL MUST GET EXEMPTIONS.

A Matter of Vital Importance to All Young Men.

A matter of utmost importance to all young men who have, or will become 21 years old before any election the present year, is a recent decision of the court of civil appeals.
It has heretofore been generally understood that those arriving at the age of 21 after Jan. 1, 1909, could vote without an exemption certificate except in cities of 10,000 or over. But in the case of Savage vs. Umphries, 115 S. W. 2d, it is held that this rule generally, 8 what a. i. et al., et al. provision of the election law applied generally. So that if a young man has become of age since Jan. 1, 1909, he must, before Feb. 1, 1910, go to the tax collector in person and procure an exemption certificate, as provided by section 23 of the Terrell election law. This applies to all such young men, whether residents of city town or country.

NEWCOMERS AT PENIEL

CALL THEMSELVES CHURCH OF
THE APOSTOLIC FAITH.

Claim to be Part of the Holiness People, But Are Not Recognized By Them.

For several days a company of people have been holding meetings at Peniel. They claim to be a part of the Holiness faith but are not recognized by the Holiness congregation as a part of their church.

The new comers could not secure the College Auditorium nor the schoolhouse for their meetings so they put up a small tent at the outskirts of the town of Peniel and held meetings there a day or two and then took down the tent and are now holding meetings in a small room they are occupying.

They call themselves the Church of the Apostolic Faith, and claim that whom they are converted it is their pentecost and like the Pentecost of old, they are endowed with the power to speak with tongues. In their meetings they do go into some sort of a trance and speak some kind of words or no known tongue, and on being pressed by one gentleman of Peniel they acknowledged that they did not understand what the tongue meant.
The new comers have made two converts at Peniel it is reported, but their meetings are poorly attended and no interest is being taken by the people of Peniel. They expect to close their meetings on Sunday.

The Holiness people say they are not a part of their faith although they claim to be. The above was told a Herald reporter by a gentleman from Peniel. There have been various reports of trouble caused by these people at Peniel but there is nothing in the reports.

Rich, dainty dishes will be served free beginning today at Graham Bros.

structors.
